

A CELEBRATION OF WOMEN IN CLASS STRUGGLE

Sessions include:

- Women fighting back in India
- Sexual freedoms and reproductive rights around the world
- Women and science
- Religion and womens' rights
- Women workers fighting back
- 100 years of womens' struggle
- What is socialist feminism?

Women in Workers' Liberty are organising this conference to celebrate and learn from women's struggle in Britain and around the world, and consider how socialist feminist ideas can make a difference. We want an anti-capitalist feminist movement, geared to class struggle, and a labour movement and left transformed to finally take women's struggles seriously.
